O R D E R:

In the G.O. 1st read above, Government have issued the Telangana Charitable and Hindu Religious Institutions and Endowments Common Good Fund Rules, 2005 for sanction of financial aid to the temples for reconstruction/renovation without fixing any ceiling limit.

2. The Commissioner Endowments Department, in his letter 6th read above, has stated that after formation of the State of Telangana, development/renovation of temples is given priority and number of applications are being received seeking financial aid from Common Good Fund in the range of Rs.50.00 Lakhs to Rs.1.00 Crore or more. He has further stated that, the C.G.F. Committee in its meeting held on 06.03.2017 resolved to fix the maximum limit for sanction of funds to each temple not exceeding Rs.50.00 lakhs irrespective of estimate, so that funds in C.G.F. would suffice and can be sanctioned proportionately to various needy/deserving temples also. He has, therefore, requested the Government to incorporate the above decision in C.G.F. Rules, for better administration of Common Good Fund.

3. Accordingly, the Government have decided to amend the Telangana Charitable and Hindu Religious Institutions and Endowments Common Good Fund Rules,2005. The following notification, will be published in the Extraordinary issue of Telangana Gazette, dated 21-07-2017.
